This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

MELCOMBE (Nazareth). L. M.

"My voice shalt Thou hear in the morning."

4 O could we learn that sacrifice,
What lights would all around us rise!
How would our hearts with wisdom talk
Along life's dullest, dreariest walk!

5 Seek me no more; content with these,
Let present rapture, comfort, ease,
As Heav'n shall bid them come and go;—
The secret this of Rest below. Amen.

CANITZ. 8,4,7,8,4,7.

"In Thy Light shall we see light."

F. R. L., Baron von Canitz, 1689.
Tr. Dr. T. Arnold (?) and the Rev. H. J. Buckoll. 1838. Abr.

Sir J. Stainer, Mus. D. 1872.

Come to Him, Who made this splendor; See thou render All thy fee - ble strength can pay. A-men.

2 Gladly hail the sun returning;
Ready burning
Be the incense of Thy powers;
For the night is safely ended;
God hath tended
With His care thy helpless hours.

3 Pray that He may prosper ever
Each endeavor,
When the aim is good and true;
But that He may ever thwart thee,
And convert thee,
When thou evil wouldst pursue.

4 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,
But His Spirit's Voice obey;
Thou with Him shalt dwell, beholding
Light enfolding
All things in unclouded Day.
Amen.

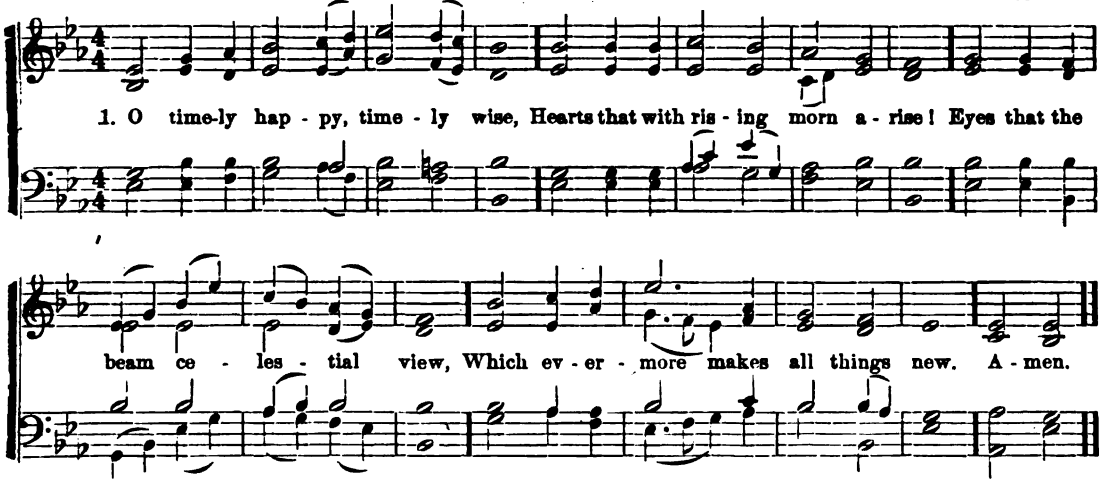
DUKE STREET (WINDLE). L. M.

"His compassions fail not, they are new every morning."

The Rev. J. KEBLE, 1827. Abr. J. HATTON, 1790.



1. O time-ly hap - py, time - ly wise, Hearts that with ris - ing morn a - rise! Eyes that the beam ce - les - tial view, Which ev - er - more makes all things new. A - men.

2 New every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove,
Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life, and power, and thought.

3 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of Heaven.

4 If, on our daily course, our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

5 Old friends, old scenes will lovelier be,
As more of Heaven in each we see,
Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care.

6 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask;
Room to deny ourselves; a road
To bring us, daily, nearer God.

7 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love
Fit us for perfect Rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray! Amen.

4.

WARWICK. C. M.

"There I will meet with Thee; and I will commune with Thee from above the mercy-seat."

The Rev. I. WATTS, D.D., 1719. Ps. 84. S. STANLEY, 1800.

2 Up to the hills, where Christ is gone
To plead for all His saints,
Presenting at His Father's Throne
Our songs and our complaints.

3 Thou art a God before Whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;
Sinners shall ne'er be Thy delight,
Nor dwell at Thy Right Hand.

4 But to Thy house will I resort,
To taste Thy mercies there;
I will frequent Thy holy court,
And worship in Thy fear.

5 O may Thy Spirit guide my feet,
In ways of righteousness,
Make every path of duty straight,
And plain before my face. Amen.

5. BARMOUTH. 7,7,7,7,7,7.

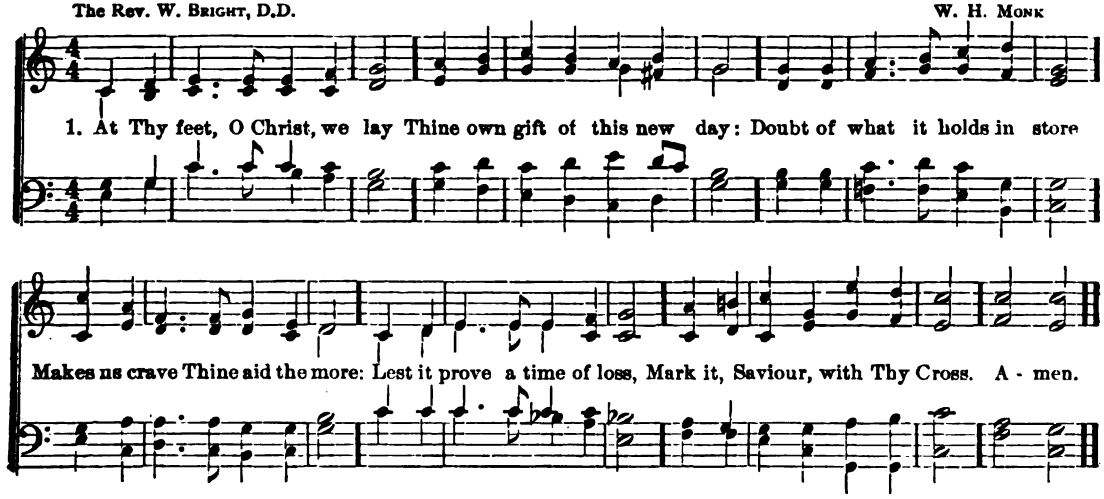
"Hold Thou me up, and I shall be safe: yea, my delight shall be ever in Thy statutes."

The Rev. W. Bright, D.D. W. H. Monk



1. At Thy feet, O Christ, we lay Thine own gift of this new day: Doubt of what it holds in store
Makes us crave Thine aid the more: Lest it prove a time of loss, Mark it, Saviour, with Thy Cross. A - men.

2 If it flow on calm and bright,
Be Thyself our chief delight;
If it bring unknown distress,
Good is all that Thou canst bless;
Only, while its hours begin,
Pray we, keep them clear of sin.

3 We in part our weakness know,
And in part discern our foe;
Well for us, before Thine eyes
All our danger open lies:
Turn not from us, while we plead
Thy compassions and our need.

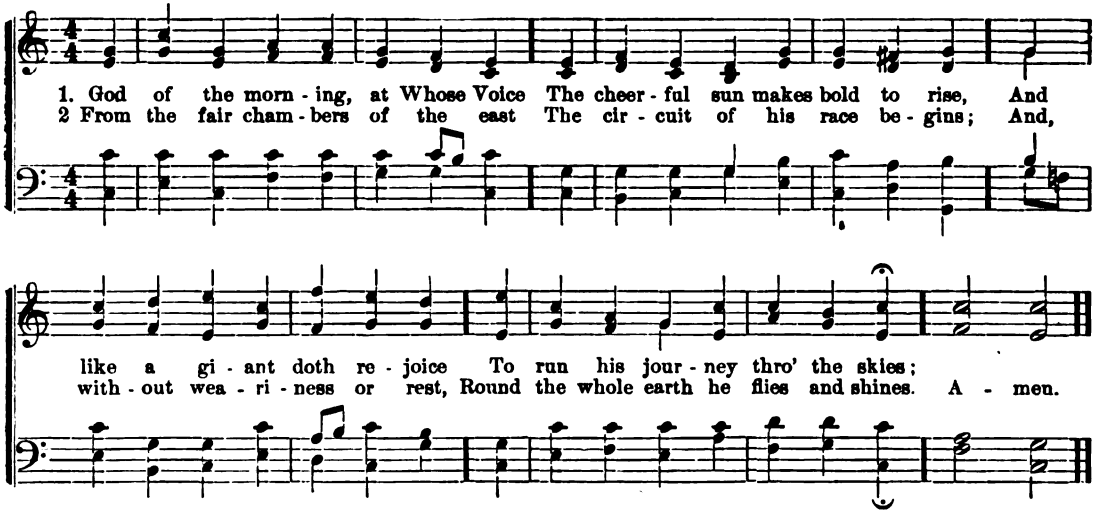
4 Fain would we Thy Word embrace,
Live each moment in Thy grace,
All ourselves to Thee consign,
Fold up all our wills in Thine,
Think, and speak, and do, and be,
Simply that which pleases Thee.

5 Hear us, Lord, and that right soon;
Hear, and grant the choicest boon
That Thy love can e'er impart,
Loyal singleness of heart:
So shall this and all our days,
Christ our God, show forth Thy praise. Amen.

6. WINCHESTER NEW (Crasselius). L. M.

"Let them that love Him be as the sun when he goeth forth in his might."

The Rev. I. WATTS, D.D. 1709. "Hamburger Musikalisches Handbuch." 1690.



1. God of the morn - ing, at Whose Voice The cheer - ful sun makes bold to rise, And
2 From the fair cham - bers of the east The cir - cuit of his race be - gins; And,
like a gi - ant doth re - joice To run his jour - ney thro' the skies;
with - out wea - ri - ness or rest, Round the whole earth he flies and shines. A - men.

3 O, like the sun, may I fulfil
Th' appointed duties of the day,
With ready mind and active will
March on, and keep my heavenly way!

4 But I shall rove and lose the race,
If God, my Sun, shall disappear,
And leave me in the world's wide maze
To follow every wandering star.

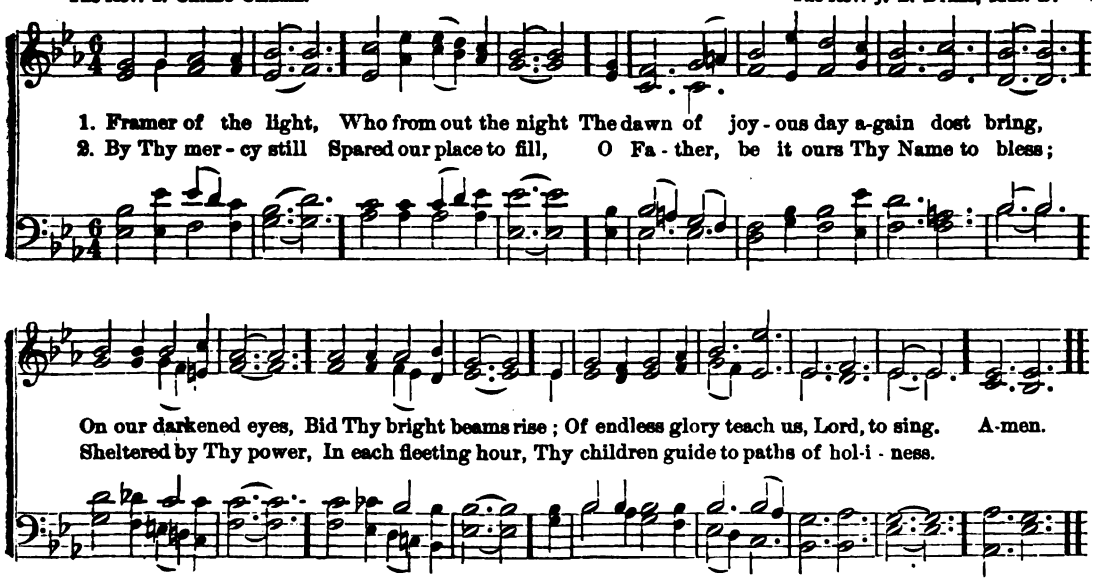
5 Lord! Thy commands are clean and pure,
Enlightening our beclouded eyes;
Thy threatenings just, Thy promise sure;
Thy Gospel makes the simple wise.

6 Give me Thy counsel for my guide,
And then receive me to Thy bliss:
All my desires and hopes beside
Are faint and cold compared with this! Amen.

7. LUX MATUTINA. 5,5,10,5,5,10.

"Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God."

The Rev. S. Childs Clarke. The Rev. J. B. Dykes, Mus. D.



1. Framer of the light, Who from out the night The dawn of joy - ous day a-gain dost bring,
2. By Thy mer - cy still Spared our place to fill, O Fa - ther, be it ours Thy Name to bless;
On our darkened eyes, Bid Thy bright beams rise; Of endless glory teach us, Lord, to sing. A-men.
Sheltered by Thy power, In each fleeting hour, Thy children guide to paths of hol-i - ness.

3 Raised from death-like sleep,
Ever may we keep
Alive within us thoughts of that great day!
Grant the ready mind,
Give us grace to find,
The strait gate unto life—the narrow way.

4 Onward to the goal
Lead each striving soul.
Upheld by strength Divine Thy grace supplies;
While it still is day,
May we win our way
Towards the mark and our high calling's prize.
Amen.

F. T. Palgrave. 1867. Abr. "The Lord's mercies are new every morning." J. Barnby. 1862.

3.
O Lord of Lights! 'tis Thou alone
Canst make our darkened hearts Thine own;
Though this new day with joy we see,
Great Dawn of God! we cry for thee!

4.
Praise God, our Maker and our Friend,
Praise Him through time, till time shall end;
Till psalm and song His Name adore
Through Heaven's great Day of Evermore.

Tr. J. D. Chambers. "This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments." S. S. Wesley, Mus. D.

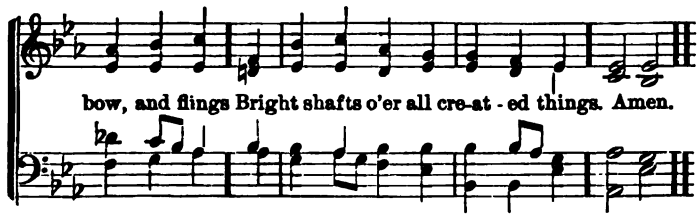
GLOUCESTER. Concluded.



2 O Jesus Christ, True Sun, illume,
With healing rays our earthly gloom;
And cause our charity to grow,
Till it like perfect day shall glow.

3 To God the Father glory be,
Like glory, Only Son, to Thee,
And like to Thee, O Holy Ghost,
From men and from the Angel-host.
Amen.

Thy child accept and bless;
And lead me by Thy Grace to-day
In paths of righteousness. Amen.

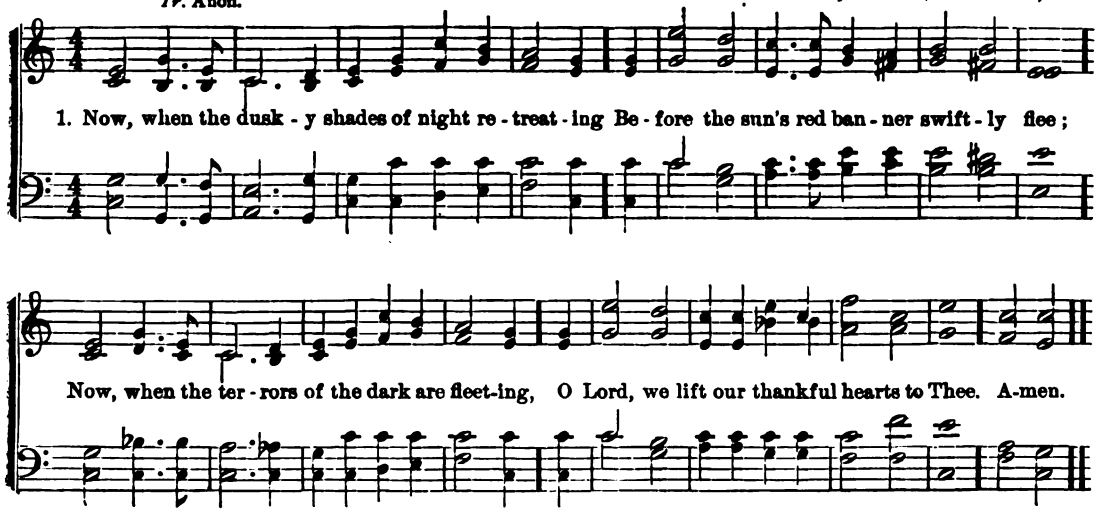
TENBURY. 11,10,11,10.

'Let us walk in the light of the Lord."

GREGORY THE GREAT, circa 540-604.
Tr. Anon.

Sir J. STAINER, Mus. D. 1872.



1. Now, when the dusk - y shades of night re - treat - ing Be - fore the sun's red ban - ner swift - ly flee;
Now, when the ter - rors of the dark are fleet-ing, O Lord, we lift our thankful hearts to Thee. A-men.

2 Look from the height of Heaven, and send to cheer us
Thy light and truth, and guide us onward still;
Still let Thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
And lead us safely to Thy holy Hill.

3 So, when that Morn of endless light is waking,
And shades of evil from its splendors flee,
Safe may we rise, this earth's dark vale forsaking,
Through all the long bright Day to dwell with Thee. Amen.

12. ## ST. ANATOLIUS. 7,6,7,6,8,8.

"I will both lay me down in peace and sleep: for Thou, Lord, makest me dwell in safety."

St. Anatolius, Bp. of Constantinople.
Tr. The Rev. J. M. Neale, D.D., 1862.

hours of night may be: O Je - sus, keep us in Thy sight, And save us thro' the coming night. A-men.

3 The toils of day are over;
We raise our hymn to Thee,
And ask, that free from danger
The hours of night may be:
O Jesus, keep us in Thy sight,
And guard us through the coming night.

4 Be Thou our souls' Defender.
Good Lord, for Thou dost know
How many are the perils
Through which we have to go:
Thou, ever wakeful, hear our call,
And guard and save us from them all. Amen.

This little Hymn is a great favorite in the Greek Isles. Its peculiar style and evident antiquity may well lead to the belief that it is the work of our present author (St. Anatolius). It is to the scattered hamlets of Chios and Mitylene what Bishop Ken's Evening Hymn is to us.

13. ST. FIDELIS. L. M.

Tr. C. COFFIN. 1736. "The sun shall no more go down." J. BARNBY. 1865.

1. When shades of night a - round us close, And wea - ry limbs in sleep re - pose, The faith - ful soul a - wake may be, And long - ing, sigh, O Lord, to Thee. A - men.

2.

Thou true Desire of nations, hear;
Thou Word of God, Thou Saviour dear;
In pity heed our humble cries,
And bid at length the fallen rise.

O come, Redeemer, come and free
Thine own from guilt and misery;
The gates of Heaven again unfold,
Which Adam's sin had closed of old.

DOXOLOGY.

All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee,
Whose Advent doth Thy people free;
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

14. EVENTIDE. 10,10,10,10.

"Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent."

The Rev. H. F. Lyte. 1847. Abr. W. H. Monk. 1860.

1. A - bide with me! fast falls the e - ven-tide; The dark-ness deep-ens; Lord, with me a - bide!
When oth - er help - ers fail, and comforts flee, Help of the helpless, O a - bide with me. A-men.

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim; its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou, Who changest not, abide with me!

3 Not a brief glance I beg, a passing word;
But, as Thou dwell'st with Thy disciples, Lord,
Familiar, condescending, patient, free,
Come, not to sojourn, but abide with me!

4 Come not in terrors, as the King of kings;
But kind and good, with healing in Thy Wings;
Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea;
Come, Friend of sinners, and thus 'bide with me!

5 Thou on my head in early youth didst smile,
And though rebellious and perverse meanwhile,
Thou hast not left me, oft as I left Thee,
On to the close, O Lord, abide with me!

6 I need Thy Presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the Tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me!

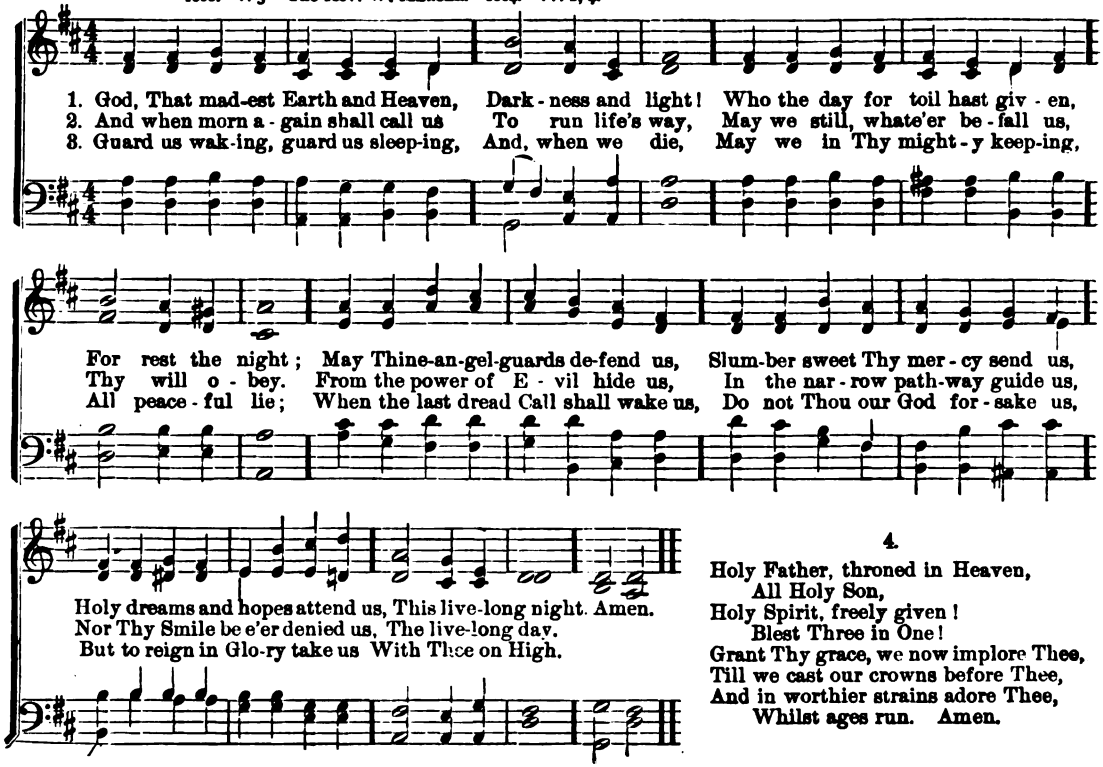
7 Hold Thou Thy Cross before my closing eyes!
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies!
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me! Amen.

15. TEMPLE. 8,4,8,4,8,8,8,4.

"I laid me down and slept: I awaked: for the Lord sustained me."

The Rt. Rev. R. Heber, D.D. 1827. v. 1. The Most Rev. R. Whately, D.D. 1860. v. 3. The Rev. W. Mercer. 1864. vv. 2, 4.

E. J. Hopkins, Mus. D. 1867.



1. God, That mad-est Earth and Heaven, Dark-ness and light! Who the day for toil hast giv-en,
2. And when morn a-gain shall call us To run life's way, May we still, whate'er be-fall us,
3. Guard us wak-ing, guard us sleep-ing, And, when we die, May we in Thy might-y keep-ing,
For rest the night; May Thine-an-gel-guards de-fend us, Slum-ber sweet Thy mer-cy send us,
Thy will o-bey. From the power of E-vil hide us, In the nar-row path-way guide us,
All peace-ful lie; When the last dread Call shall wake us, Do not Thou our God for-sake us,
Holy dreams and hopes attend us, This live-long night. Amen.
Nor Thy Smile be e'er denied us, The live-long day.
But to reign in Glo-ry take us With Thee on High.

4.

Holy Father, throned in Heaven,
All Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, freely given!
Blest Three in One!
Grant Thy grace, we now implore Thee,
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
And in worthier strains adore Thee,
Whilst ages run. Amen.

16. ST. LEO. 8,7,8,7.

J. Edmeston, 1820. "God fainteth not, neither is weary." S. S. Wesley, Mus. D. 1864.

1. Sav - iour, breathe an eve - ning bless - ing, Ere re - pose our eye - lids seal;
Sin and want we come con - fess - ing; Thou canst save, and Thou canst heal.

2.

Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrow near us fly,
Angel-guards from Thee surround us;
We are safe if Thou art nigh.

3.

Though the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness cannot hide from Thee;
Thou art He who, never weary,
Watcheth where Thy people be.

4.

Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in Heaven awake us,
Clad in light and deathless bloom.

Doxology.

Praise the Father, Earth and Heaven,
Praise the Son, the Spirit praise,
As it was, and is, be given
Glory through Eternal Days.

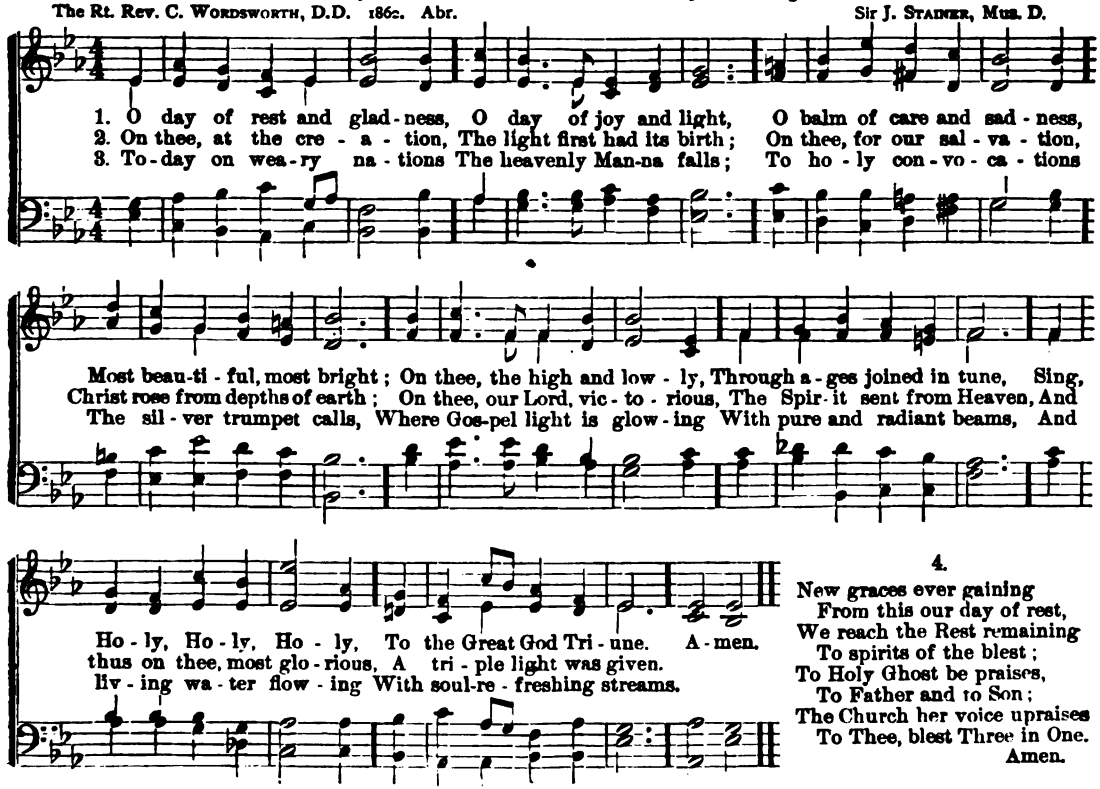
"This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it."

The Rt. Rev. C. WORDSWORTH, D.D. 1862. Abr. Sir J. STAINER, Mus. D.



1. O day of rest and glad-ness, O day of joy and light, O balm of care and sad-ness,

1. How pre - cious is the Book Di - vine, By in - spi - ra - tion given;
Bright as a lamp its doc-trines shine, To guide our souls to Heav'n. A - men.

2 Its light, descending from above,
Our gloomy world to cheer,
Displays a Saviour's boundless love,
And brings His glories near.

3 It shows to man his wandering ways,
And where his feet have trod;
And brings to view the matchless grace
Of a forgiving God.

4 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears:
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

5 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearest light
Of an Eternal Day. Amen.

Spirits blest, before Thy Throne,
Speeding thence at Thy command;
And when Thy command is done,
Singing everlastingly
To the blessèd Trinity.

3 Cherubim and seraphim
Veil their faces with their wings;
Eyes of angels are too dim
To behold the King of kings,
While they sing eternally
To the blessèd Trinity.

4 The apostles, prophets, Thee,
Thee, the noble martyr band,
Praise with solemn jubilee;
Thee the Church in every land;
Singing everlastingly
To the blessèd Trinity.

5 Alleluia! Lord, to Thee,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Three in One, and One in Three,
Join we with the heavenly Host,
Singing everlastingly
To the blessèd Trinity. Amen.

Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
Only Thou art holy, there is none beside Thee,

When, invoked by priest and seer,
To His people's cry He hearkened;
Answered them in all their fear:
He is Holy;
As they called, they found Him near.

4 Laws divine to them were spoken
From the pillar of the cloud;
Sacred precepts, quickly broken!
Fiercely then His vengeance flowed:
He is Holy;
To the dust their hearts were bowed.

5 But their Father God forgave them
When they sought His Face once more:
Ever ready was to save them,
Tenderly did He restore:
He is Holy;
We, too, will His grace implore.

Waits His mercy to fulfil:
Come, exalt Him, all the living;
Come, ascend His Zion, still:
He is Holy;
Worship at His Holy Hill. Amen.

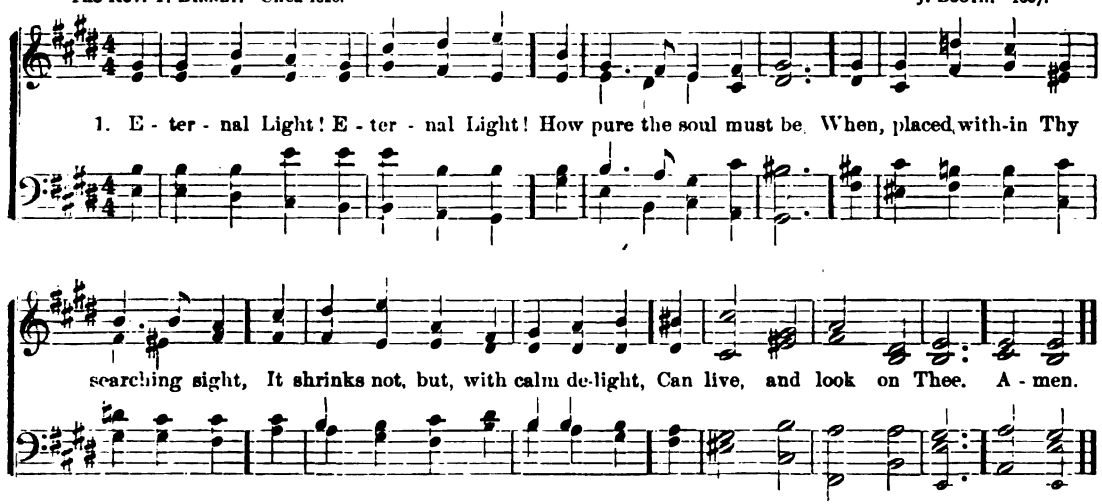
The Rev. T. Binney. Circa 1826. J. Booth. 1887.



1. E - ter - nal Light! E - ter - nal Light! How pure the soul must be When, placed with-in Thy searching sight, It shrinks not, but, with calm de-light, Can live, and look on Thee. A - men.

2 The spirits that sur-round Thy Throne
May bear the burning bliss;
But that is surely theirs alone,
Since they have never, never known
A fallen world like this.

3 O! how shall I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim,
Before the Ineffable appear,
And on my naked spirit bear
The uncreated beam?

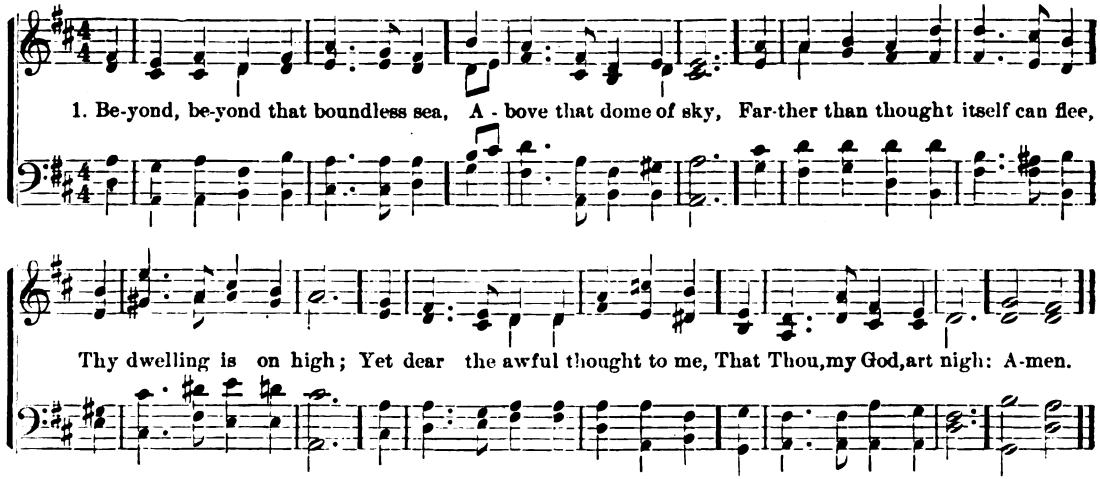
4 There is a way for man to rise
To that sublime abode:
An offering and a sacrifice,
A Holy Spirit's energies,
An Advocate with God:—

5 These, these prepare us for the sight
Of Holiness above:
The sons of ignorance and night
May dwell in the Eternal Light,
Through the Eternal Love! Amen.

50. ALL HALLOWS. 8,6,8,6,8,6.

"Thy way is in the sea, and Thy path in the great waters."

J. CONDER. A. H. BROWN. 1887.



1. Be-yond, be-yond that boundless sea, A - bove that dome of sky, Far-ther than thought itself can flee,
Thy dwelling is on high; Yet dear the awful thought to me, That Thou, my God, art nigh: A-men.

2 Art nigh, and yet my laboring mind
Feels after Thee in vain,
Thee in these works of power to find
Or to Thy seat attain;
Thy messenger, the stormy wind;
Thy path, the trackless main:

3 These speak of Thee with loud acclaim;
They thunder forth Thy praise,
The glorious honor of Thy Name,
The wonders of Thy ways:
But Thou art not in tempest-flame,
Nor in day's glorious blaze.

4 We hear Thy Voice, when thunders roll
Through the wide fields of air;
The waves obey Thy dread control;
Yet still Thou art not there.
Where shall I find Him, O my soul,
Who yet is everywhere?

5 O! not in circling depth or height,
But in the conscious breast;
Present to faith, though veiled from sight,
There doth His Spirit rest
O come, Thou Presence Infinite!
And make Thy creature blest. Amen

"Praise the Lord, O my soul."

The Rev. S. MEDLEY. 1787. W. KNAPP. 1738.

2. He saw me ru - ined in the fall, Yet loved me, not - with-stand - ing all; He

3 Though numerous hosts of mighty foes,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along;
His loving-kindness, O how strong!

4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick, and thundered loud,
He near my soul has always stood;
His loving-kindness, O how good!

5 Often I feel my sinful heart
Prone from my Saviour to depart,
But though I oft have Him forgot,
His loving-kindness changes not.

6 Soon I shall pass the gloomy vale,
Soon all my mortal powers must fail;
O may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death! Amen.

3 Great and ever greater
Are Thy mercies here,
True and everlasting
Are the glories there,
Where no pain nor sorrow
Toil nor care is known;
Where the angel-legions

4 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God;
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking,
Till the prize is won.

5 Higher then and higher
Bear the ransomed soul,
(Earthly toils forgotten)
Saviour, to its goal;
Where in joys unthought of
Saints with angels sing,
Never weary, raising
Praises to their King. Amen

"They shall see the Glory of the Lord."

The Twelfth Century.

1. Fair-est Lord Je-sus, Rul-er of all nat-ure, O Thou of God and man the Son;
Thee will I cher-ish, Thee will I hon-or, Thou, my soul's glo-ry, joy and crown. A-men.

And all the twinkling, starry host.
Jesus shines brighter,
Jesus shines purer,
Than all the angels Heaven can boast. Amen

"God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself."

Miss S. E. Miles. E. J. Hopkins, Mus. D. 1887.

1. Thou Who didst stoop below To drain the cup of woe, Wearing the form of frail mor - tal - i - ty;
Thy blessèd labors done, Thy crown of vict'ry won, Hast pass'd from earth, pass'd to Thy Home on high. Amen.

2 It was no path of flowers,
Through this dark world of ours,
Belovèd of the Father, Thou didst tread;
And shall we in dismay
Shrink from the narrow way,
When clouds and darkness are around it spread?

3 O Thou, Who art our Life,
Be with us through the strife;
Thy Holy Head by earth's fierce storms was bowed.
Raise Thou our eyes above,
To see a Father's love,
Beam like the bow of promise through a cloud.

4 E'en through the awful gloom
Which hovers o'er the tomb,
That light of love our guiding star shall be;
Our spirits shall not dread
The shadowy path to tread,
Friend, Guardian, Saviour, which doth lead to Thee. Amen.

The Rev. A. M. Toplady. 1776. The Rev. J B. Dykes, Mus. D. 1872.

From Thy riven Side which flowed, Be of sin the double cure, Cleanse me from its guilt and power. Amen.

2 Not the labors of my hands
Can fulfill Thy Law's demands;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears forever flow,
All for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and Thou alone.

3 Nothing in my hand I bring;
Simply to Thy Cross I cling;
Naked, come to Thee for dress;
Helpless, look to Thee for grace;
Foul, I to the Fountain fly:
Wash me, Saviour, or I die!

When my eye-lids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See Thee on Thy judgment Throne;
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee! Amen.

4 To Bethlehem straight th' enlightened shepherds ran,
To see the Wonders God had wrought for man;
Then to their flocks, still praising God, return,
And their glad hearts with holy rapture burn;
To all the joyful tidings they proclaim,
These first Apostles of the Saviour's Name.

5 Then may we hope, th' angelic thrones among,
To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphant song:
He That was born upon this joyful day
Around us all His glory shall display:
Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
Eternal praise to Heaven's Almighty King. Amen.

Odors of Edom and offerings divine?
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

Vainly with gifts would His favor secure:
Richer by far is the heart's adoration;
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

3 The heart, in sensual fetters bound,
And barren as the wintry ground,
Confesses, Lord, Thy quickening ray;
Thy Word can charm the spell away;
With genial influence can beguile
The frozen wilderness to smile;
Bid living waters o'er it flow,
And all be paradise below.

The moon forget her nightly tale,
And deepest silence hush on high
The radiant chorus of the sky;
But, fix'd for everlasting years,
Unmoved amid the wreck of spheres,
Thy Word shall shine in cloudless day,
When Heaven and earth have pass'd away. Amen.

1. My song is love unknown; My Saviour's love to me; Love to the loveless shown, That they might love - ly be. O who am I, That for my sake, My Lord should take Frail flesh, and die? A-men.

2 He came from His blessed Throne,
Salvation to bestow:
But men made strange, and none
The longed-for Christ would know,
But O, my Friend;
My Friend indeed,
Who at my need
His life did spend.

3 Sometimes they strew His way,
And His sweet praises sing;
Resounding all the day,
Hosannas to their King.
Then "Crucify!"
Is all their breath,
And for His death
They thirst and cry.

4 Why, what hath my Lord done?
What makes this rage and spite;
He made the lame to run,
He gave the blind their sight.
Sweet injuries!
Yet they at these
Themselves displease,
And 'gainst Him rise.

5 They rise, and needs will have
My dear Lord made away,
A murderer they save:
The Prince of Life they slay.
Yet cheerful He
To suff'ring goes,
That He His foes
From thence might free.

6 In life, no house, no home
My Lord on earth might have;
In death, no friendly tomb,
But what a stranger gave.
What may I say?
Heav'n was His Home;
But mine the tomb
Wherein He lay.

7 Here might I stay and sing,
No story so divine;
Never was love, dear King!
Never was grief like Thine.
This is my Friend,
In Whose sweet praise
I all my days
Could gladly spend. Amen.

2 What Thou shalt to-day provide,
Let me as a child receive;
What to-morrow may betide,
Calmly to Thy wisdom leave.
'Tis enough that Thou wilt care:
Why should I the burden bear?

3 As a little child relies
On a care beyond his own;
Knows he's neither strong nor wise;
Fears to stir a step alone;
Let me thus with Thee abide,
As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

4 Thus preserved from Satan's wiles,
Safe from dangers, free from fears,
May I live upon Thy smiles,
Till the promised hour appears,
When the sons of God shall prove
All their Father's boundless love. Amen.

Washed in the Redeemer's Blood!

Tr. The Rev. J. M. NEALE, D.D. J. BARNBY. 1872.

1 IN sweet consent let all the | anthem sing;
Come, all earth's peoples, praise the E- | ternal King:
Shout, choirs of angels, shout through- | out the sky;
And ye, blest souls in Para- | dise, reply.

2 Join, ye bright planets, as ye | shine, aloud;
Join too, ye thunder, lightning, | wind and cloud;
Sing, groves and forests, flood, wave, | storm and snow;
Answer, bright days, hoar frost, and | summer glow.

Ye beasts of earth, with varying | voices, say;
Here let the mountains thunder | forth amain,
There let the valleys sing in | gentler strain.

4 Thou jubilant abyss of | ocean, cry;
Ye tracts of earth and conti- | nents, reply.

"There remaineth a rest to the people of God."

(O quanta qualia sunt illa Sabbata.) Old Latin hymn of the 13th century.
Tr. The Rev. J. M. NEALE, D.D. Slightly alt. and abr.

Melody from LA FEILLÉE.

1. O what the joy and the glo - ry must be, Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see;
Crown for the val-iant, to wea-ry ones rest; God shall be all and in all ev-er blest. A-men.

2 What are the Monarch, His court, and His throne?
What are the peace, and the joy that they own?
O, that the blest ones, who in it have share,
All that they feel could as fully declare.

3 Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,
Vision of Peace, that brings joy evermore;
Wish and fulfillment can severed be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.

4 There, where no troubles distraction can bring,
We the sweet anthems of Sion shall sing,
While for Thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
Thy blessèd people eternally raise.

5 There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one evermore;
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the angels and us shall belong.

6 Now in the meanwhile with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh;
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.

7 Low before Him with our praises we fall,
Of Whom, and in Whom, and through Whom are all:
Of Whom, the Father; and in Whom, the Son:
Through Whom, the Spirit, with Them ever One.
Amen.

1. Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore:
2. On-ward we go, for still we hear them singing, "Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come!"
3. Far, far a-way, like bells of evening peal-ing, The Voice of Je-sus sounds o'er land and sea,
4. Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary, The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling Of that new life when sin shall be no more.
And thro' the dark its ech-oes sweetly ring-ing, The mu-sic of the Gospel leads us home.
And la-den souls by thousands meekly stealing, Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.
Faith's journey ends in welcome to the wea-ry, And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

"They brought young children to Him."

Mrs. J. Luke. 1841. J. H. Cornell. 1871.

called lit-tle children as lambs to His fold, I should like to have been with them then. A - men.

2 I wish that His Hands had been placed on my head,
That His Arm had been thrown around me,
And that I might have seen His kind look when He said,

And ask for a share in His love;
And earnestly seek Him below,

And many dear children shall be with Him there,
For of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

I wish they could know there is room for them all,
And that Jesus has bid them to come. Amen.

AGNUS DEI. S. M. D.

"When he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders rejoicing."

The Rev. H. Bonar, D.D, 1843. H. J. Gauntlett, Mus. D.

1. I was a wand'ring sheep, I did not love the fold; I did not love my Shepherd's voice,
I would not be con-trolled. I was a wayward child, I did not love my home; I did not love my Father's voice, I loved a - far to roam. A - men.

2.

The Shepherd sought His sheep,
The Father sought His child,
They followed me o'er vale and hill,
O'er deserts waste and wild.
They found me nigh to death,
Famished, and faint, and lone;
They bound me with the bands of love,
They saved the wand'ring one.

3.

They spoke in tender love,
They raised my drooping head,
They gently closed my bleeding wounds,
My fainting soul they fed;
They washed my filth away,
They made me clean and fair,
They brought me to my home in peace,
The long-sought wanderer

4.

Jesus my Shepherd is,
'Twas He that loved my soul,
'Twas He that washed me in His Blood,
'Twas He that made me whole;
'Twas He that sought the lost,
That found the wandering sheep;
'Twas He that brought me to the fold,
'Tis He that still doth keep.

5.

I was a wandering sheep,
I would not be controlled;
But now I love my Shepherd's Voice
I love, I love the fold.
I was a wayward child,
I once preferred to roam;
But now I love my Father's voice,
I love, I love His Home.
Amen.

Throned above the sky,
Jesus, tender Saviour,
Hear our grateful cry.

4 For Thy faithful servants
Who have entered in;
For Thy fearless soldiers
Who have conquered sin;
For the countless legions
Who have followed Thee,
Heedless of the danger,
On to victory:
Jesus, King of Glory,
Throned above the sky,
Jesus, tender Saviour,
Hear our grateful cry.

5 When the shadows lengthen,
Show us, Lord, Thy way;
Through the darkness lead us
To the heavenly day:
When our course is finished,
Ended all the strife,
Grant us with the faithful
Palms and crowns of life.
Jesus, King of Glory,
Throned above the sky,
Jesus, tender Saviour,
Hear Thy children cry. Amen.

"Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes."

Anon. (1847?) Abr. Sir J. STAINER, Mus. D. 1871.

Thou wilt stoop to lis - ten, When Thy praise we sing. A-men.

Watch us day by day;
Help us now to love Thee;
Take our sins away:—
Then, when Jesus calls us
To our heavenly home,
We would gladly answer,
"Saviour, Lord, we come."
Amen.

A. YOUNG. 1838. S. S. WESLEY, Mus. D. 1864.

2 Come to that happy Land,
Come, come away;
Why will ye doubting stand,
Why still delay?
O, we shall happy be,
When from sin and sorrow free!
Lord, we shall live with Thee,
Blest, blest for aye.

3 Bright, in that happy Land,
Beams every eye;
Kept by a Father's Hand,
Love cannot die.
O, then to glory run;
Be a Crown and Kingdom won;
And bright, above the sun,
We reign for aye. Amen.

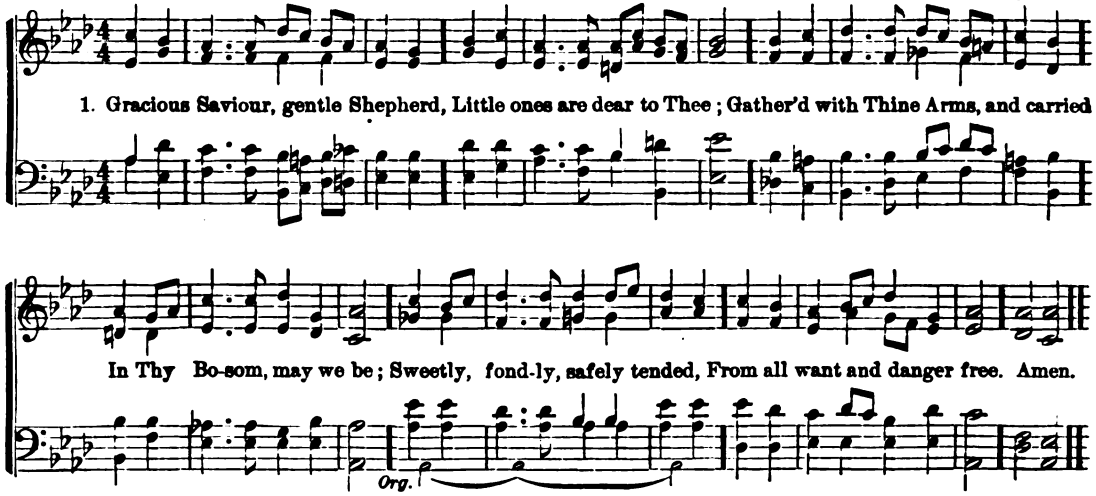
Miss Jane E. Leeson and the Rev. J. Whittemore. Abr. W. A. F. Schulthes. 1874. Slightly alt.



1. Gracious Saviour, gentle Shepherd, Little ones are dear to Thee; Gather'd with Thine Arms, and carried
In Thy Bo-som, may we be; Sweetly, fond-ly, safely tended, From all want and danger free. Amen.
Org.

2 Tender Shepherd, never leave us,
From Thy fold to go astray;
By Thy Look of Love directed
May we walk the other way;
Thus direct us, and protect us,
Lest we fall to sin a prey,

3 Let Thy Holy Word instruct us;
Fill our minds with heavenly light;
Let Thy love and grace constrain us
To approve whate'er is right,
Take Thine easy yoke and wear it,
Feel Thy heavy burden light.

4 Taught to lisp the holy praises
Which on earth Thy children sing,
Both with lips and hearts unfeignéd
May we our thank-offerings bring:
Then with all the saints in glory,
Join to praise our Lord and King. Amen.

Head of the Church Triumphant	219
Hear us, Thou that broodedst	135
Heavenly Father, send Thy blessing	259
Holy Father, great Creator	31

Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God Almighty	32
Holy night! peaceful night	101
Hosanna we sing, like the children dear	257
How bright these glorious spirits shine	234
How precious is the Book Divine	29
How sweet the name of Jesus sounds	57
I DO not ask, O Lord, that life may be	160
I heard the Voice of Jesus say	144
I know that my Redeemer lives	64
I lay my sins on Jesus	150
I think when I read that sweet story of old	241
I was a wandering sheep	242
If thou but suffer God to guide thee	180
In the field with their flocks abiding	95
Inspirer and Hearer of prayer	165
In sweet consent let all the anthem sing	228
I've found a Friend; O! such a Friend	172
JERUSALEM the Golden	227
Jesus, high in Glory	245
Jesus, holy, undefiled	249
Jesus, I love Thy charming Name	147

My God, my King, Thy praise I'll sing	42
My song is love unknown	179
NEARER, my God, to Thee	169

O come, all ye faithful	97
O day of rest and gladness	21
O for a closer walk with God	193
O for a heart to praise my God	185
O God, Thou art my God alone	73
O God, Thy power is wonderful	44
O Jesus, I have promised	154
O Jesus, Thou art standing	106
O Lord, how good, how great art Thou	41
O Lord, the heav'n Thy power displays	36
O Love Divine, how sweet Thou art	182
O Master, it is good to be	109
O Paradise! O Paradise	230
O praise ye the Lord, prepare your glad voice	13

	NO.
O Sacred Head, now wounded	114
O Thou, Who by a star didst guide	255
O timely happy, timely wise	3
O what the joy and the glory must be	229
Of the Father's love begotten	86
Once again, O blessed time	104
Once in royal David's city	107
Onward, Christian soldiers	148
Onward! onward! march to glory	264
Our blest Redeemer, ere He breathed	138
Our God stands firm, a Rock and Tow'r	202
PRAISE, Lord, for Thee in Sion waits	168
Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven	54
Praise the Lord, His glories show	24
Praise the Holiest in the height	213
Praise the Lord! ye Heavens adore Him	88
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty King	235
Purer yet and purer	149
QUIET, Lord, my froward heart	188
REJOICE, all ye believers	83
Rejoice, the Lord is King	36
Rejoice, ye pure in heart	237
Ride on, ride on in majesty	122
Rise, crown'd with light, imperial Salem, rise	201
Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings	189
Rock of Ages, cleft for me	70
Round the Lord in glory seated	34
SAFE home, safe home in port	220
Safely through another week	20
Saviour, again to Thy dear Name	28
Saviour, blessed Saviour	56
Saviour, breathe an evening blessing	16
Saviour, like a shepherd lead us	253
Saviour, now the day is ending	19
Saviour, Source of every blessing	62
See amid the winter's snow	105
Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing	92
Sing Alleluia forth in duteous praise	211
Soldiers of Christ, arise	215
Sometimes a light surprises	191
Songs of praise, the angels sang	214
Standing forth on life's rough way	251
Still we trust, tho' earth seem dark and dreary	161
Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear	17
Sweet is Thy mercy, Lord	177
Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go	27
TEN thousand times ten thousand	233
Th' atoning work is done	131
The Bridegroom comes	82
The Church's one Foundation	197
The day is past and over	12
The Day of Resurrection	123
The King of Love my Shepherd is	184
The morning light is breaking	199
The saints of God! their conflict past	217
The Son of God goes forth to war	84
There's a friend for little children	252
The spacious firmament on high	29
The starry firmament on high	174
The royal banners forward go	152
The world is very evil	222
There is a glorious world of light	256
There is a Green Hill far away	120
There is a happy Land	246
Thine forever! God of love	153
This is the day the Lord hath made	23
Thou art gone up on high	182
Thou art, O God, the life and light	40
Thou only Sovereign of my heart	175
Thou, Who didst stoop below	69
Thou, Whose Almighty word	198
Thro' all the changing scenes of life	43
To God on high be thanks and praise	52
To Thee, O dear, dear Saviour	145
UPLIFT the banner! let it float	204
Upward where the stars are burning	232
WAKE all music's magic power	91
Weary of earth and laden with my sin	142
Welcome, happy morning	134
Welcome, thou Victor in the strife	127
We march, we march to victory	265
We plough the fields and scatter	234
We saw Thee not when Thou didst come	111
We thank Thee, Lord, for this fair earth	48
When Christ was born of Mary free	100
When His Salvation bringing	243
When I survey the wondrous Cross	117
When Jesus left His Father's Throne	247
When like a stranger on our sphere	110
When morning gilds the skies	61
When shades of night around us close	13
When the weary seeking rest	163
When through the torn sail	231
Who is this, so weak and helpless?	119
Who is on the Lord's side?	265
Why should the children of a King?	139
With joy we hail the sacred day	22
